ANDROID™ NETRUNNER™
THE CARD GAME

Flip Cards

The Jinteki Biotech card (⚙ 12) in The Valley data pack is double-faced. The three copies of Jinteki Biotech each have a different version of the card on the back side. The Corp player can build his deck around any one of the copies of Jinteki Biotech–all 3 have the same influence and minimum deck size restrictions–and then use the ability on the front side of the card to swap to a different version of the card from his collection before taking his first turn. There is no influence nor minimum deck size listed on the back sides of the Jinteki Biotech ID, as these values are not used during gameplay.

The back side of a double-faced identity is hidden knowledge, and the Runner cannot look at the back of the card.

By spending ⓞ ⓞ ⓞ, the Corp can flip the front of the ID to its back side. This triggers the ability on the back side of the identity. This is a once-per-game ability, as the Corp cannot choose to flip the ID back to its front.

When swapping IDs, the player can swap back to the original card (in case he is worried that his opponent knows which card he started with).

RONNY FIVE'S DISAPPEARANCE LEAVES MALL-GOERS FLUSTERED

"WHERE DID HE GO?"

Ronny Five is taking heat for his failure to show at a scheduled appearance in the Bangkok Mall. The bioroid star of "Friendship, Upgraded" was supposed to meet and greet fans in front of the YucaBean for an hour. Instead, the crowd became rowdy and agitated when the star failed to appear.

"You wonder what Haas is doing to him," said Ty Banderas, a 34-year-old West Hill native who was hoping to get a signed brainchip. Is the star being reprogrammed? Is there a fatal flaw in his architecture? Is the humanity of Ronny Five at stake?

This might affect the news that Ronny Five was recently cast in Martin St. Jude's ambitious biopic "Truman," about the last of the bengal tigers.

We reached out to Ronny's reps but have not heard back. Whatever the reason, let's hope that the next time we see Ronny Five, it is under the supervision of a different director than Director Haas.
